FBI UCR Definitions

UCR Non-consensual Offenses

Rape

The carnal knowledge of a person, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent because of his/her age or because of his/her temporary or permanent mental or physical incapacity. Includes male victims.

Note: At least one of the offenders must be the opposite gender of at least one of the victims.

Sodomy/Oral Sex

Oral or anal sexual intercourse with another person, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent because of his/her age or because of his/her temporary or permanent mental or physical incapacity.

Sexual Assault with an Object

To use an object or instrument to unlawfully penetrate, however slightly, the genital or anal opening of the body of another person, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent because of his/her age or because of his/her temporary or permanent mental or physical incapacity.

Fondling

The touching of the private body parts of another person for the purpose of sexual gratification, without the consent of the victim, including instances where the victim is incapable of giving consent because of his/her age or because of his/her temporary or permanent mental or physical incapacity; considered "lesser-included" with the other three non-consensual offenses.

UCR Consensual Offenses (victim must be at least 10 years old)

Incest

Nonforcible sexual intercourse between persons who are related to each other within the degrees wherein marriage is prohibited by law (2nd cousin).

Note: For consensual offenses, penile-vaginal intercourse is reportable as well as sodomy/oral sex and sexual assault with an object. Same-sex situations are reportable as incest.

Statutory Rape

Nonforcible sexual intercourse with a person who is under the statutory age of consent (under 18 in Wisconsin).

Note: For consensual offenses, if the victim is under the age of 18 (but is capable of giving consent), penile-vaginal intercourse is reportable as well as sodomy/oral sex and sexual assault with an object. Same-sex situations are reportable as statutory rape.

Note: All definitions are from the FBI's 2013 UCR NIBRS User Manual, v 1.0. The manual can be found at <https://ucr.fbi.gov/>
